

Congradulations! You have just successfully started your online Russian language course, but are you ready to study for it? Have you prepared well? Here are the best tips for online learners that will help you succeed with your Russian online lessons.

1. Make a Study Plan

Write out a weekly schedule with your study dates and times. Find time to focus only on Russian online classes with no distractions. That's important. And add a few hours daily for homework, because you'll have one 😊

2. No Distractions

It can be a challenge! So turn off your mobile phone, loud background music and TV. A distraction-free environment encourages your thinking and helps you stay focused.

3. Take Notes

Write down notes during your lesson. Just like in a classroom, taking notes will make it easier to remember the important things. This will also help you to prepare for your weekly online tests.

4. Use the Break

During your daily online Russian lessons you will have a short break. Use it well. Stretch, drink water, use the bathroom. This way you stay focused while also getting a few minutes to quiet your mind.

5. Ask Questions

Yes, online learners don't have to stress about not passing a test or failing in front of their classmates. But it's still important to learn well and understand everything. So ask questions as soon as you have them. Your Russian language teacher is always there to listen and to help you succeed!

6. Be Active

If you have Individual Online Russian lessons, be active. Ask your teacher their opinions, thoughts on topics and any additional questions you might have. This study time is fully yours, so use it to the fullest. If you have a Group Online Russian Course, talk to others students as well!

7. Stay Healthy

Our brain can only work to its fullest if our body is well, so take good care of yourself. Stay safe and healthy. And if you pass your weekly test with a high score, treat yourself! Keep the motivation active and the progress from online learning will come right away!

8. One More Thing

One of the best benefits to study Russian online from home with Russian Language Academy, apart from safety, is your outfit. Wear what you feel comfortable in, slippers approved! This way you're staying relaxed and cosy. 😊
